How to register on the ISMA^{UK} Hub

- Follow this link which brings you to the Hub dashboard
- Register by entering your name, email address and choose your password
- The Hub is on a platform provided by Ugenie. You will be asked to accept the Ugenie terms & conditions and may receive emails from them, but only in relation to ISMA^{UK} matters
- You will be asked to complete your profile including a photo and your location.
 You can editit and add more information about yourself when you're in the Hub
- Choose your member type (Guest or ISMA^{UK} Member) and tags for subjects you're interested in so that, when announcements and resources are added, you will be notified
- Press Enter to enter the Hub, where you can access a newsfeed, documentary and video resources, a calendar of member events and a members' directory.
- When you want to get into the Hub in future simply enter your email address and password
